Abstract

Commodore D. Epps enlisted as a private in Company F, 6th Georgia Cavalry Regiment, on 20 June 1862. He saw action at the Battle of Perryville, Ky., 8 October 1862, and at the Battle of Chickamauga, Ga., 18-20 September 1863. Epps died on 15 December 1863 of wounds he received at Chickamauga. The collection consists of 15 letters, 1862-1863, from C. D. Epps with the 6th Georgia Cavalry Regiment in Georgia, Kentucky, and Tennessee, chiefly to his wife, Catherine S. Epps, at the family farm, probably in Murray County, Ga. In the letters, Epps gave his wife instructions for managing the farm, chiefly what to plant and who to hire to perform tasks like making new fences; requested goods from home, like boots, clothing, and, above all, a substitute; and described camp life and battles, especially the Battle of Perryville. Some of the letters contain messages for his children, mother, and other family members. Epps wrote the last letter, dated 13 November 1863, from Polk Hospital in Rome, Ga., where he was brought for treatment of wounds suffered at Chickamauga. In this letter, Epps anticipated coming home, but he died shortly after writing it. Also included are photocopies of segments of 6th Georgia Cavalry Regiment muster rolls relating to Epps; Catherine S. Epps's 1864 claim as widow of C. D. Epps; a portion of the 1870 census showing Catherine S. Epps resident in Spring Place, Ga.; and a 1915 statement of C. D. Epps's Confederate army service from the commisioner of pensions, Atlanta, Ga.

Direct your letter to Tunnel Hill, Smith's Legion in care of Captain Anderson, Camp Smith, Whitfield, GA.
Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time and hope these few lines will come safe to your hands and find you and all the rest enjoying the same blessing. I have nothing of importance to write to you. I received your kind letter. I was glad to here from you all and that you all was well.
Catherine, I have a notion to go to Richmond to Hugin(?) Company. I can get $50 dollars to change with Van Cints' brother and I had rather be in a foot company. I want you and all the rest to write whether you are willing or not. Catherine, I haven't drawn any bounty yet and I don't no whether I ever will or not. I don't know when we will leave here. I want you to write to me if you have had any news from Hamp (?) Ridley and what he is doing; whether he is a wagoneer or not. For Cints is a wagoneer and I am to have his place if I go.
Catherine, you wrote to me to write to you about managing. You know best now. Do the best you can to make something to eat and if I can help you I will do it.
I don't know when I shall get any money, but when I do you shall have part of it if I live. Catherine, if you can get anybody to come in my place on reasonable terms, do it. Tell mother and all the rest to write to me. I want to hear from you often. They was 3 men went home the other day to get substitutes in their place. Manuel McCoy(?) went home to get him a substitute. If you get anybody, you come with them to the camps. I would like to see you if I could. I had a smuthering(?) this day was 2 weeks ago and I thought I would die, but I sent for -----(?) and he eased me. I am well as common now. If you want to come to see me you can come to your daddy's and I will try to get 4 or 5 furloughs and come up there. If you want to come, star(?) a letter from there and tell me when you will be there to a day. If you want to come you had better be in a hurry. Tell all my friends to write to me. Catherine, do the best you can. I must close, nothing more at present. Only remains yours truly until death. God bless you.

Camp Smith, Whitfield County August the 10, 1862

Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you and all of the rest of both families well and friends. I have nothing of importance to write to you. I received my bounty yesterday. I would like for you to come to your daddy's as quick as you could and fetch my boots, and a pair of pants on the heels (?), and a fine comb, and a hand towel. We are talking of leaving here but I don't know when it may be before you could get here but if you feel disposed to start on the circumstances. Write me a letter as soon as you get done reading this. Send it to Blairsville (?) post office and mail it and state when you will be there. I have no chance of sending any money now. If you come I will try to meet you there if we don't leave here before you can come, and if you don't come I will send you some money as soon as I can get a chance. I want you to have work carried on and try to make all you can. Seed down all of the corn land in wheat and rye. Fored (?) go and buy rye now and lay it in 5 bushels. Anything you need get it. Polear (?) and Willie and Henry and Alford; I want you all to be good boys and mind your Mother and see how much work you can do. Catherine, I want you to get somebody to help build that fence on the mountain and let the boys be a clearing it up. Commence (?) in time if you do come. Let me have a letter so I will know when to meet you if I can and if I can't you can see your folks and go home. Do this in a hurry if you undertake it. There is running thousands of soldiers down toward Chatanooga. They are expecting a fite. All of our neighbors is well. I want you to write me all the news. Catherine, I will send you a shin plaster (?). Nick Hulander said he would pay you corn for what he owed me 45 cts. Gather up all your little debts, tend to my hides. Put them in new bark. Tend to old Darb. Save all the feed you can. Tend to your hogs and cattle. So I must come to a close. Nothing more at present. Only remains yours truly til' death. C. D. Epps to Catherine Epps. Dear mother and brother, sisters and uncle, I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may find you all well and doing well. I want you all to write to me often. Camp Smith, Whitfield

Dear wife and children, mother and sisters, brother and uncle. I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you all enjoying the same blessing. I received your kind letter. I was glad to hear that you was all well. I can inform you that we have to leave this place. We are going to Louden, Tennesee. We start a Tuesday morning the 19th. We have drawn our arms: double barrel shotguns, caterey boxes(?), haver sacks, canteens, saddle bags, bridals, halters, and some has drawn cavalry saddles.
Catherine, I sent you $20 dollars by Thomas Butt. I would have sent you more but cold weather will be here directly and I want me an overcoat. I will buy me an overcoat and I want you to make the balance of my clothes against cold weather. 1 pair socks, I pair gloves, 1 pair pants. Catherine, I want you to send my boots as soon as you can. Catherine, it takes a heap of money here to do a man's washing. Tobacco .50 a plug, paper $1.75 ____. I don't know when I will draw any more money. All the boys has been in three months and has not drawn their wages yet. Catherine, if anybody wants to take my place and take that lot and $75 dollars you come with them to the camps. When we get to Louden we will be nearer home than here. It is one hundred miles from here to Louden. Catherine, I sent you a seventy five cents in a letter. I will send you 50 cents in stamps.
I will send you some change to lift my letters 50 cents. I would like to see you mighty well if I could. I want you to see Siles Ledfor (Silas Ledford ?) and tell him to pay that money to you and you pay it to Mother and credit her note $2.50.
Then put down in my day book $2.50 cents on Ledford's note. Look at the note that Mother has and see the credit and put down the day and the date in the day book where I have the balance what I had recieved. The news is said to be that all men who has been discharged has to come back into service unless been discharged by the Secretary of War. I don't know the certainty of it. Catherine, I want you and my folks to write to me often. Show the letter to them. All write together. Write me all the news and I will do the same. All do the best you can. I must come to a close by saying I remains yours truly 'till death.

October the 13, 1862. Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines will come safe to hand and find you all well. I can say to you that I have been in a little skirmish fight. I fired five rounds at the yankees and the bullets whistled all 'round my head and the bombs fell all round us. They was a pretty heavy loss on both sides. The fight was at Perryville.
We retreated from there to our camp in order to keep them from our camps.
They are all 'round here. We are still having little fighting 'round here. We expect a heavy attack and it will be A heavy Fight. I will write you the straight of it if I come through. I don't know whether I will or not, but I am in hopes I will. I want you to do the best you can and I will do the same. Don't be uneasy about me.
I want you to write to me all the news. I have not got time to write as much as I want to write. I am in hopes we will whip them. Direct your letters by the way of Knoxville to Camp Breckenridge near Frankfurt, Kentucky, Smith's

Dear Wife,

I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you all doing well. I have not drawn any money yet. If I had it would be a good chance to send it to you by Jonathan Plott.

I want you to buy corn now. If you think you will not have enough to do. I want you to have plenty to do. Now is the time to get it. Try to fix to make more. Maybe I will be home sometime. Make all the corn (whiskey) you can. I sent $5 by Charley Jenson...

There is a bigger mountain here than I ever saw. We have been in Kentucky...had a good deal of fighting to do...balls whistling all around... We had 5 or 6 wounded...1 man killed....

Georgia, Union County
December 21, 1862

Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you and all the rest enjoying the same blessing.
I can say to you that we are not going to start til' after Christmas. I am sorry that I did not know it, I could have stayed with you a few more days.
I got a pair of shoe leathers and a pair of half soles

I paid $3 and 50 cents for the leather. I am going To make me a new pair of shoes and take with me and I am going to half sole and patch my boots.
I have got nary blanket But I will have one before I leave. Charley paid me $5 dollars. I got my watch from ____ (?). He said Suten (?) charged $ 6 dollars and he told Mike that Suten charged $5 and 50 cents and Ruben (?) charged 50 cents for going after it. I paid him $5 dollars and I will pay him the balance when Charley pays me the balance. I will take with me for fear I will need it. I Sent and got that knife and nine balls and he claimed the knife but he sent it to me. He asked if I was at home. Maren (?) told him I was. He says well if I was a mind to tell a lie about it he would send them to me. He is a rascal. He said I give him the knife but I did not give him The balls. I sent him word back that he was a infernal liar, that I had give him the rest of the things as much as the knife. I give Jason the durk(?) knife and that knife I got from you for his knife.

Catherine, I want you to write to me as soon as you get this and put them watch keys in the letter.
Direct your letter to Mill Creek. Catherine, I am sorry that I did not stay longer but I did not know. God bless you.

Georgia, Union County

Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you and all the rest well. I can say to you that Charley paid me five dollars and he won't pay me any more. Rube Pritchard is going to move to Tennesee. Charley would not pay him and come to me and I paid him five dollars that you owed him. I paid him six dollars for the fixing the watch. I paid one dollar and fifty cents to Go (George ?) Plott for a quart of brandy. I paid two dollars a coming up here. I paid three dollars and a half for leather. I have paid out eighteen dollars and received five. I have got nine dollars and a half left. I haven't got nary blanket yet.
I have tried the whole country but I think I can get one from John Boone (?), a good one for eight dollars. I am going to see him day after tomorrow. He has two. He said he would sell me one for eight dollars. It will take all the money I have but one dollar and fifty cents.
Catherine, I don't expect to start 'til the tenth of next month. Captain Anderson is not 'til then. He says we will all go together. Catherine, I am sorry that I did not stay longer with you, but I did not know they was going to stay so long. Catherine, I think you might come up and see me before I start. If you do come, fetch me five dollars and them watch keys and a box of caps and if Wesley will take a dollar and a half for that locket fetch it.
Catherine, don't think that I run off on purpose to keep from staying with you. I want to see you mighty bad. If I had known they was going to stay so long when I first came up here I should have come back there. Catherine, if you take the notion to come, start as soon as you get these lines. I seen Harelson about that salt. He said it would be here in a few days. Catherine, Elliot Collins wife is dead and Columbus Spurling's wife and child is dead. I Shall look for you, whether I see you or not. If you come, start as soon as you get these lines. I must come to a close by saying I remain yours truly until death.

Mikes and Peters is all well as far as I know. Peter has not started yet. I do not know when he will.
Mike said it might be that he would stay 'til his captain goes. His captain is at home.

Louden, Tennesee

Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping those few lines may come safe to hand and find you and the children and all the rest well and doing well. I have nothing of importance to write to you. I received two letters from you stating that you was well. I was glad to hear it. I wrote you a letter dated the 17 of this instant with 50 cents in it. Write whether you got it or not. Our captain has resigned and is going home shortly. He is going to sell his horses. I will be afoot. Write to me whether you could do without old Darb or not. In haste, I can buy one here by paying a big price. I don't want to disfurnish you. I expect so I could give it to you. I want you to write what arrangements you have made about salt. I sent 5 dollars off to get 50 pounds of salt for you. I told mother to get it and pay for the hauling and save it for you. She said she would do so. I gave Mike an order to draw your 20 pounds. He said he would do so. We are stationed here at Louden. I don't know how long we will stay here. We have got good tents. We get plenty of corn bread and beef and bacon, rice, sugar, and salt peas. We fare pretty well here. I want you to write to me where Washington is stationed at and how to direct a letter to him and also Peter the same. Did you hear taht Peters regiment was taken prisoners or did you our battalion (?). Tom Satefield heard from Jim. He said nothing about it. Write to me whether the old man bought that place or not and whether you are going to stay in the house with your father or not. I want the boys to work good and make a big pile of corn and ask me to the shucking. Sarah, I saw your old man. He is well. Catherine, send me them watch keys if you please. I have Got a watch and no key. I can't but nary key. I have tried every place. Send me that watch cord the first chance and buy that locket and send it too. Catherine, I would be glad the war would stop so I could come home and stay with you. I am in hopes the time will soon roll 'round. Direct your letter to Louden, Tennesee. Nothing more at present, only remains yours. C. D. Epps

Peter Mack Danel (McDaniel ?) will be our captain. You wrote to me to write to you the straight of that little rally that our boys had across the mountain. They had been out on a scout and lay down and took their rest and did not put out any pickets and the yankees came on them next morning and fired on them while they was getting their breakfast and charged upon them and took about 50 of them prisoners and about 60 horses. They got Bill Hulander, Columbus Spurlin (Spurling ?) and killed Joe Saterfield and the sargent major. I could name several others but these were in our settlement. They was but 2 killed. I would send you some money but I am afraid to risk it. I would be glad that I could see you

Dear wife, I take the pleasure of dropping you a few lines to inform you that I am not well. I have a mighty pain in my eye. My command is gone to Ashville, Buncom (?) Co. They started yesterday morning and I was sent here to the hospital.
We have good fare here. Catherine, don't be uneasy. I received two letters from you. I was not able to answer them.
I don't know how long I will stay here. I expect 'til my eye gets well, then I will go to the boy (?). Write to me whether there is a nag could be bought or not. Nothing more at present. Only remains yours truly until death.

Dear wife, I take the opportunity of writing you a few lines to let you know that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines
find you enjoying the same blessing. I have nothing of importance to write. I do not know when I will leave here. I can say to you that Ellerd(?) Did not mistreat me. He got me transportation to the camp of instruction and sent me there without a guard. He said no one had not told that I had tried to keep out of the way. He said the way it started. He asked Killgro (?) If I had been skipping around & Kilgro told him that I hadn't - that I had heard home about two weeks and Had been passing the road and knocking about 'mong the people.

I am in very good heart. I think I will get to go to my command in a few days. I heard from Tinesly(?) Epps. A man come from there a few days ago and seen Lige Teague(?) and told him that He was in California and was well. Lige is here and told me you need not to write 'til you hear from me again.
So I will come to a close Dear wife, I take the pleasure of dropping you a few lines to inform you that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you all well. Catherine, we have not drawn any money yet. I will not draw this time because I was not here to muster for pay. I will not draw but eleven dollars a month because I had no horse. I Will have to mount myself or go to the infantry. Catherine, when I got back here to the command it was all right. They said nothing to me. Catherine, write to me whether you have heard from Peter lately or not. They have been fighting very strong at Vicksburg. Write how Wash (Washington) come out in mounting himself and how Poke is doing. I heard from Mike. He was in a fite and came through not hurt. Fate Oulery (O'leary ?) And John Kees (Keys ?) was killed. Catherine, I wrote you a letter the next day after I got here. I wrote you a letter at the camp of instruction. Catherine, they put me in the guard house at the camp of instruction and at Knoxville but I don't care for it. I fared splendid. My command done nothing with me. They was glad to see me. Write whether Henry got to come home or not. Catherine I would love to hear from you. I have not heard from you since I seen you.

Catherine, direct your letter to Cumberland Gap, Tennesee to the Dear wife, I take my pen in hand to inform you that I am well at this time. Hoping these few lines may come safe to hand and find you and all the rest well. I received your kind letter. I was glad to hear from you. We have been on a march twelve days. We landed here yesterday evening. We are one hundred and thirty miles from Louden. We have been after about four hundred rennegades. We captured about fifteen prisoners and killed the colonel and two others. They was going to Lincoln's Army. Don't think hard of me for not writing, for I have not had the chance to write. I have some money for you. I wish you had it. I have a pair of shoes for you. Write to me whether you have heard from Peter or not. They have all gone home that was able. I do not know how long we will stay here. The mar standes (?) It very well. Write all the news. Direct your letter to Jonesborough, Tennesee. When you go to Union you must rent out that land to somebody. Phillip Hullander wants it, but you let it out to the best advantage. I want all the stalk land seeded. Shure (?) and let somebody put up their rails on that mountain and have all they can make two years and all so the same in them bottoms and tend the stuble and pay the third and all so the small grain. Write soon as you get this. Nothing more at present. Only remains yours truly until death. God bless you.
